

The acts of preparing and eating dinner without the annoyance of a solicitor's phone call are something that everyone should be able to experience. Since the New Jersey Do Not Call law was enacted this is something that my household now enjoys. Please do not weaken New Jersey's consumer protection laws. Thank you.